

Position Statement: Basie Jansen

Should I be elected as Membership Officer for INCOSE SA, I then shall strive to achieve the following objectives (with the support of the CMC);

- Continue with the upgrade of the membership database.
- Continue with process that INCOSE central and our database is on the same revision status.

Why am I suitable for this position?

I was the membership officer for the past two years.

Naam: Basie Jansen

Organisation: South African Air Force

Mr J.A. Jansen worked in the banking environment (Volkskas, now ABSA) after matriculation. He did national service at 7 South African Infantry at Phalaborwa. He was also part of the State President Guard before joining the South African Air Force as an aircraft technician. Worked on Alouette, Oryx, Impala aircrafts. After qualified as a Flight Engineer, he was part of the aircrew of the Alouette Helicopters.

In 1991 he completed his officers course and been appointed as a Technical Officer. As Technical Officer he held various posts such as the Logistical Officer at Air Force Base Bloemspuit, Technical Officer at 86 Multi Engine Flying School, Base Aircraft Servicing Section, 6 Aircraft Servicing Unit. Other appointments were Efficiency Manager at Air Force Base Bloemspuit, Project Officer and Product System Manager for the Rooivalk and A109 helicopter.

He obtained his MBL degree at Unisa (2002) and MTech degree at TUT (2009). He is registered as a professional engineer technologist (Pr Tech Eng) with the Engineering Council of South Africa (ECSA), professional member of the South African Institute of Management Services and is a member of INCOSE.